

ReAding Genres

Mystery

A fictional story that revolves around dealing with a puzzling crime or discovering a secret.

FolkTALE

A story or belief, often passed on by word of mouth, with exaggerated characters and obstacles.

FABLE

A short story that often teaches a moral, typically with animals as characters.

INFORMATION

A piece of non-fictional writing or a story that is about a specific topic.

Legend

A story that is based on an event or a person but cannot be proven.

FAIRY TALE

A story that typically involves magical forces and unlikely events that lead to a happy ending.

Myth

A traditional story that normally involves supernatural events or beings, explaining a natural or social phenomenon.

FANTASY

A fictional story that is very imaginative and uses very strange characters or settings.

Poetry

A choice of words which use sound and rhythm to inspire thoughts and feelings.

HISTORICAL Fiction

A literacy genre in which the plot takes place in a setting located in the past.

BiOGRAPHY

A story about a real person's life that is written by someone else.

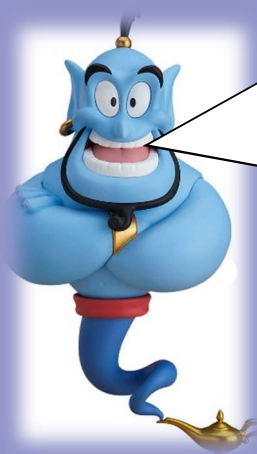

AutobiOGRAPHY

A story about a real person's life that is written by himself or herself.

Science Fiction

A story that includes science and technology, often set in the future or other worlds.

So, you've been around the world. Now it's time to become a Genre Genie. You will receive 2 learning points for every book that you complete from a different genre. The genres are listed here. See the book lists on Class Dojo and the website for ideas for books from different genres.

How many genres can you read? Will you grant your teacher's three wishes to READ, READ, READ?